Privacy Policy

Suffolk Federation of Young Farmers' Clubs is committed to safeguarding your privacy online. We use the information we collect about you to help us understand more about how our site is used and to be able to send you communications about Suffolk Federation of Young Farmers' Clubs that may be of interest to you, either electronically or otherwise.

The 'personally identifiable information' is information that enables us to identify you, such as your email address, name, title and address.

Please read the following policy to understand how your personal information will be treated.

This policy may change from time to time so please check back periodically.

What personally identifiable information does Suffolk Federation of Young Farmers' Clubs collect from me?

Like many websites, Suffolk Federation of Young Farmers' Clubs uses cookies in order to provide you with a more personalised web service. A cookie is a text-only string of information that we pass to your computer's hard disk through your web-browser so that the website can remember who you are. Cookies cannot be used by themselves to identify you. A cookie will typically contain the name of the domain from which the cookie has come, the "lifetime" of the cookie, and a value, usually a randomly generated unique number. For more information about cookies, please see allaboutcookies.org.

If you do not wish to receive cookies you can easily modify your web browser to refuse cookies, or to notify you when you receive a new cookie. However, you may not be able to use all the interactive features of our site if cookies are disabled, and so in order to enjoy the Suffolk Federation of Young Farmers' Clubs site to the full, we recommend that you leave them switched on.
